

Mira Zbikowska

Mira was born in Poland but has lived and worked in the Netherlands since 1983.

She has been active in art many years and since 2018 has been full time. For a long time she was involved with the Art foundation in Amstelveen. In 2012 her painting Silence won the 1st audience prize at the Amstelveen Art Competition.

She followed the basic drawing and painting course at the Wackers Academy in Amsterdam.

Her works are in the possession of private collectors in the Netherlands, Poland, United Kingdom, and the United States.

She currently has her studio located in Baarn.

Her source of inspiration is nature. In her latest works, birds play a leading a role.

Mira's works distinguish themselves by their strong nostalgic tones.