

Morten Tropp

My name is Morten Tropp. I'm an self taught artist from Denmark.
Colors and moods control the process impulsively. A story is created - re-created - interpreted or digested.

I am inspired by street art, graffiti and children's drawings.
I am fascinated by the way children express themselves because they are not bound by rules and general opinions about how things should look like.