

Vita Sabrina Kreinsen

Sabrina Kreinsen is an autodidact painter and a studied architect from Hamburg-Germany.

Since the beginning of her architectural studies, she has been intensively involved with painting and pursues it with great passion and professionalism.

She started with watercolor painting and soon thereafter switched to acrylic paints since around 2003. Her pictures present clear, pleasant colors and are intended to reflect life in a positive way.

Large-format acrylic paintings are created in her studio in the north of Hamburg with different themes: Nordic landscape – showing very often the North or Baltic sea with its surfs and dunes, as well as powerful flowers und cityscapes.

Since 2006 the artist has exhibited her paintings in solo exhibitions in various galleries, decorates hotels (and offices) with pictures and participates in art fairs in for example in Hamburg, Sylt, St. Peter-Ording and Rügen.
