Biography

Rumyana Frick was born in Bulgaria and developed an early connection to visual arts. She completed an academic university education in Art and Pedagogy and expanded her artistic practice through international experiences, particularly in Greece. Since 2002 she has been living and working in Switzerland (Zurich / Bülach) as a freelance artist.

Artist Statement

Her works are defined by recognizable details and a dynamic balance between chaos and harmony. She works in an intuitive yet structured process, translating emotional states into a visual language of color, movement, and contrast.
